DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

THOMAS L. SAGER, PARTNER, BALLARD SPAHR LLP; FORMER SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL COUNSEL, DUPONT

Organizations throughout the United States, both corporate legal departments and law firms alike, are facing intense competitive pressure. To survive and thrive, companies and firms must continue to embrace and advance a culture that values diversity and inclusion. For those of us who have held positions of prominence, it is incumbent upon us to use our platform to set the right tone. We must have the vision and resolve to foster a culture that identifies and regularly engages those diverse professionals at all levels of the organization. And then we must create truly meaningful opportunities for them to help us solve our most pressing business problems and challenges. It is only through this commitment to diversity and inclusion that organizations will successfully renew themselves and secure their future.
